

was fixed for the end of the festivities, and it was after midnight that the Engineer Band struck up "Home Sweet Home," the last dancers swept out on the floor of the East Room and the President felt that he could retire.

Congratulatory cablegrams from many of the rulers of the world poured into the White House to-day, including among others, messages from the Emperor of Germany, the President of France, Emperor Meiji, of Japan, the Emperor of China, King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy; King Alfonso, of Spain; King Gustav, of Sweden, and President Arosemena, of Panama.

British Ambassador Bryce called at the White House personally to express the congratulations of the King and Queen of England.

Schmucker Arrested.

During the festivities George E. B. Schmucker, former consul of the United States to Ensenada, was arrested at the east entrance of the White House. The ex-consul insisted on having his card sent in to the President, saying that he wanted to see him on urgent business. He conducted himself in such a manner as to attract the attention of the detectives scattered through the grounds, and was taken into custody. He was later sent to the Washington Asylum Hospital, where he is held for observation.

Schmucker recently was relieved from his post of Ensenada owing to a nervous breakdown. He returned to this country recently, and has been staying at Staunton, Va., but came to Washington, Theodore F. Shuey, an uncle of Schmucker, and an official stenographer of the Senate, called at detective headquarters to-night and asked that Schmucker be held for observation. No weapons were found on him.

expressed surprise at the lack of the National Sugar Refining Company in having a president without a salary. His questions led the witness to repeat that H. O. Havemeyer gave him $500,000 of the common stock of the National "because I never received salary as president."

Mr. Post also said that B. H. Howell, Son & Company got a commission of one-half of 1 per cent. for handling the business of the National. This amounted to about $220,000 a year. As one of the three partners of B. H. Howell, Son & Company, Mr. Post said he received $50,000 to $60,000 out of this $220,000.

Replying to a rapid fire of questions from Representative Sulzer, Mr. Post declared that H. O. Havemeyer, although controlling the American Sugar Refining Company "through his brains and high ability," and although interested in the National Sugar Refining Company, never suppressed competition between them.

There was never any concert in the management of the two companies," said Mr. Post. "Strange as it may seem, that is true."

"Why wasn't there?" asked Mr.

"Berry's for Clothes."

If your feet are lousy, come here and let our expert suggest a combination of your foot and our $4 shoe.

Various shades in tan and brown to match our $20 suits and various shoes from $3.50 to $6.50 to match your pocket.

Handy slip-ons for the sudden shower, $3.

English rubberized leather-weights, $12 to $35.

"You'll have to ask the directors that."

"You would have sold sugar much cheaper if you had not watered your stock?" Mr. Sulzer inquired.

Mr. Post objected to the use of the word "watered," but to the question said: "No. Because the economies practiced by the company have more than offset the dividends on the stock."

"Mr. Post, have you made any effort to get back these $10,000,000 of stock?" inquired Representative Sulzer, referring again to the stock Havemeyer obtained by the organization of the National Sugar Refining Company, of which Mr. Post is president.

"There was no reason why I ought," rejoined Mr. Post.

Mr. Raker asked the witness if he meant to say that these corporations were organized in behalf of the people of the country.

"I think they shared in the profits," explained Mr. Post.

Horace Havemeyer, son of H. O. Havemeyer, will appear before the committee to-morrow.

SENATOR WARREN TO WED

Announces Coming Marriage to Miss Clara Morgan.

Washington, June 19.—Senator Francis E. Warren, of Wyoming, surprised his fellow-Senators to-day when he announced that he was to marry, in the near future, Miss Clara Morgan, of New York and Washington.

Miss Morgan is the daughter of the late John L. Morgan, of New York, and is about thirty-five years of age. In recent years she has spent her winters in Washington with her uncle, former Associate Justice Brown, of the Supreme Court, and is well known in Washington society. Senator Warren is sixty-seven years old, and has been a widower nine years. He has a son, Fred E. Warren, of Cheyenne, Wyo., and a daughter, the wife of Brigadier-General John G. Pershing, now in the Philippines.

Attorney-General Denounces Referendum Initiative and Recall.

New Haven, Conn., June 19.—Attorney-General Wickersham told the graduating class of the Yale Law School to-day why he is opposed to the proposed Constitution of Arizona, and scored the referendum, the initiative and the recall. It was an abuse of language to call such a scheme of government popular, he said.

"It is an attempt," declared the Attorney-General, "to create a government of the people by a minority of the people, for a small minority of the people. To adopt it would be to substitute for the institutions which are the growth and the evolution of centuries of American experience, the devices of French revolution and Swiss socialism."

BIGGEST OF THE KIND

Massillon, O., June 19.—Four hundred and forty-one square feet of strawberry shortcake furnished the piece de resistance at the Sunday dinner for inmates of the Massillon State Hospital. The bakers at the institution assert the cake is the biggest one on record. It was twenty-one feet square and made up of two layers, for which several hundred pounds of flour were required, and between these layers were placed several layers of hospital garden produce. Seven men were required to convey this great delicacy to the dining room tables, where the patients disposed of it, with fifty gallons of milk.

Trend of Population to Cities Largely Due to Unimproved Conditions.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Washington, June 19.—"Philosophers who have been deploring the trend of population from country to city," said Logan Waller Page, director of the United States Office of Public Roads, to-day, "might as well save their energy, unless they are prepared to help change the conditions responsible for the migration. At the root of this condition are the poorly kept roads of the country. It is certain that the farmers do not get the use of their share of the money earned in the United States. There are now over 90,000,000 people in this country, and nearly one-third are farmers and their families. The products of the farm are responsible for more than one-third of the wealth and commerce of the country. No one can say, however, that one-third of this wealth is used by the farmer in the betterment of the country districts.

"It is due to the inactivity and lack of co-operation among the farmers that country districts have become depopulated. The 'back to the country' movement has had a considerable vogue at sumptuous banquets in the cities, but the movement has not gotten far out of town, for the simple reason that life in the slums, despite all theories, frequently is much more livable than life in the country.

"While fine phrases can be made in the discussion of the joy and health of hand labor 'in the open air and under the sun,' it is a fact that conditions in the cities are much more healthful to-day than conditions in the country. Sanitation is better, and the air in tenements is little worse than the air in many country houses, where, because of the extreme cold and lack of proper heating apparatus, the windows must be kept closed from October until May.

"Improper sanitation, poor drainage and poor highways in the country have brought about as great a percentage of disease as exist in the city. While country people are free, as a rule, from tuberculosis, they are extremely liable to typhoid fever, pneumonia and other diseases that we brought on by improper drainage and improper ventilation.

Change in Conditions.

"The work that is being done towards the improvement of roads throughout the country will change

NEW REPUBLIC IS RECOGNIZED

United States Acts Following Proclaiming of Republic by Assembly.

Lisbon, June 19.—The United States has officially recognized the republic of Portugal. This followed the opening of the new constituent assembly this morning at which the president of the chamber read a decree proclaiming the abolition of the monarchy and the banishment from Portugal of the royal family of Braganza, which was unanimously approved. The decree was also read by the president to the great throngs which gathered outside the assembly building, after which the chamber adjourned.

George L. Lorillard, American charge d'affaires, in the afternoon waited upon Senor Machado, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and delivered the following to him:

"Whereas, the national constituent assembly has this day settled upon and definitely proclaimed the form of government adopted by Portugal, I, H. Dault, did last night at 12:30 o'clock, in accordance with the instructions received from my government, of hereby informing Your Excellency that the government of the United States of America has to-day officially recognized the government of the Portuguese republic."

The day was observed as a public holiday throughout the whole country. Popular demonstrations in honor of the occasion were held everywhere, but no disorders are reported.

CHILDREN WITNESS TRAGEDY

Mother Killed by Father and Litter Attempts Suicide.

New York, June 19.—Three little children of Louis Kuckmeister were witnesses shortly after midnight this morning of the murder of their mother and their father's suicide leap from the fourth-story window of their home on the East Side. Kuckmeister killed his wife by beating her over the head with an ax and then jumped from the rear window of their flat. He was picked up in the yard below, with a broken ax in his hand, and taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition.

Mrs. Kuckmeister was but twenty-eight years old, and her husband, who is thirty-five, recently served a short sentence in prison for being brutal to her.

MANY INJURED IN STREET CAR PANIC

Buffalo, N. Y., June 19.—In a panic which followed the burning out of a controller on a trolley car on the Niagara Falls line, near Tonawanda, to-night, one person was probably fatally injured and twelve others were badly hurt. Eight of the injured are delegates to the convention of the Modern Woodmen of America, now in session here.

William C. Brown, Hall, Tenn., is the most seriously hurt. His skull was fractured and the sight of one eye destroyed. He may die.

John E. Swanger, of Jefferson City, Mo., former Secretary of State of Missouri, had his right foot crushed and right hand badly cut.

A. L. Reeves, of Jefferson City, Mo., auditor of the Missouri State Insurance Department, had his left leg sprained, head cut and received internal injuries.

George J. Bowman, auditor of the Oklahoma State District of Modern Woodmen, of Kingfisher, Okla., was internally injured.

Among the others hurt were James W. Carson and J. W. Carpenter, both of Martin, Tenn.

As the car was running at rapid speed, with fifty passengers aboard, there was a flame in the vestibule and the motorman was seen trying vainly to apply the brake. When it became apparent that the car was out of control and the brake began to spread, the passengers became panic-stricken and a rush was made for the rear platform. The foremost were pushed off the platform while the car was running at the rate of twenty miles an hour, thus receiving their injuries.

CONFESSES ROBBERIES

Eight-Year-Old Lad in Manchester, Conn., Puzzles Police.

Manchester, Conn., June 19.—The police here have a puzzling case in Edward Rudant, an eight-year-old boy who has confessed to a dozen carefully planned robberies which occurred recently. The lad is too young to be admitted to any institution in the State, and he has not been arrested, although the police declare that his extraordinary criminal tendencies make it unwise to allow him longer at large.

The boy has been a constant smoker of cigarettes for nearly half of his brief life, and the police assert that his addiction to this habit has so weakened his moral sense that he really does not know right from wrong.

Forty whales were counted by the Seneca's officers, a record for coastwise whale-sealing craft.

Gardner, of Wellfleet, recently convicted in the United States District Court of conspiracy to smuggle Chinese into the United States.

Dr. May, of New York, and Captain Harvey D. Day, of Somerville, who were tried on the same indictment, were acquitted.

DROWNED FROM CANOE

Three Girls Lose Their Lives in a Michigan Stream.

Aston Rapids, Mich., June 19.—Lela and Lena Stewart, sisters, aged sixteen and fourteen, and Fern Hall, aged fourteen, were drowned yesterday when their canoe capsized in Spring Brook, a branch of Grand River in this city.

There were no witnesses of the accident and the first known of it was when the girls' canoe was found floating bottom up on the stream. The three bodies were found close together a short distance above where the canoe was discovered. It is thought that the canoe struck a snag, causing it to capsize.
